Oth thing Oth, Happy new Year (2022)!

Oh, right. Did you know that today is also my 52th birthday? I mean, yeah, I don't exactly know when I was born, but the wise folks in the null island pointed me that I was born at January 1, 1970.

To celebrate that fresh constructor that we've just called, we decided to redesign our whole website to be, well, new. We eliminate as many custom CSS as possible so, this time our site should be way faster than before!

&& for the Oth time I'm the one who will be delivering site updates like this. I didn't pwn Shiftine for this, okay? However, we're disabling microformats-2 formatting on this site since it really conflicts with this new theme. But don't worry, only a very few number of people will even notice it.

Well, that's it, I guess. return 0;
